

Gc
977.202
An23f
1916
1758123

M. L.

REYNOLDS HISTORICAL GENEALOGY COLLECTION

✓

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 1833 02292 6635

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2009 with funding from
Allen County Public Library Genealogy Center

<http://www.archive.org/details/diaryofeventsofy1916fork>

DIARY OF EVENTS

OF THE YEAR 1916

EDITED BY

JOHN L. FORNER

PUBLISHED BY

THE FINANCIAL MANAGER

433 Union Bank
Anderson

REPRESENTING

H. K. L. Collins Company

HIGH GRADE INVESTMENTS

in 3-1/2% Non-Taxable Bonds and Securities

1758123

G. W. Gates &amp; Co.

The Cloak House

Coats            Suits
 Furs            Skirts
 Waists        Millinery
 Hosiery        Corsets
 Muslin Wear
 Every Department a Leader
 West Side Square

JANUARY

Place your investments with the L. Hollings Company. Four to six per cent.

1—Rain and snow.

Cloudy, rain and heavy fog; snow melting in Ohio; warm sun and Ethan F. A. avia took an actors life.

Geo. T. Beebe enters second term as county treasurer.

Al Ringler, circus man, died at Baraboo, Wis., age 65.

Mrs. Anna Mahay, 82, died, widow of Martin Mahay.

Mrs. Hannah H. King, died in at Dayton, O. Formerly of Ar gon.

3—John Moore, ag 78, died at a firmay.

Carry Forker, a retired school
 tudent of High school.

Paul St. Charles, rural mail carrier, came near being crushed by a ox overturning a mail box.

4—Mrs. W. B. ... fell and her wrist at 21 W. ...

5—John, ...

River at ... "Harrington" ...
 Ohio river, ... Park ...
 Va. 50 feet.

Supreme court ...
 five ...

6—Clear and cold

John G. ... Civil war ... soldier died.

Mrs. ... Mite ... suddenly, at 722 W. ...

Anderson ...
 for year.

K. of P.'s ... ten.

7—(Cont'd.)
Raymond Hinkley, age 46, died at Washington, D. C., on Oct. 25.
Peter J. Clarke, age 81, died at 1410 N. Ave. T. Funeral given
Oct. 28, C. H. Hartley, officiating.
John H. died at Cleveland, N. D.,
Nov. 1.

8—(Cont'd.)
Nicholas McCarty, of Evansville,
Ind., died at his residence in this city where he resided for many years. Funeral given at Chas. Wilson, 1314 1/2 Pine St., and burial at Forest Hill.
Mrs. Martha B. W. G. died at Evansville.

9—(Cont'd.)
Remains of Mr. Joseph A. W. of of Alexandria, Ind., were taken one of the funeral home's great distances.

Flavin Johnson, elected president,
Pattern Makers' Guild, at 226 DeLaeter St., on the night of
Oct. 28, at 8 p. m.

10—(Cont'd.)
Mrs. Adelle A. Clark, of Summit
Village, died at Pine Bluff on Oct. 28. She enjoyed the sport.

11—(Cont'd.)
John H. died at 225 Central Ave.
William T. H. died at at Evansville.

Neal, of the firm of J. J. of Lapel, foundered in his car on Oct. 28.
Orr, of the firm of J. J. of Lapel, died at his home in Ind.

12—(Cont'd.)
James H. died at
1101 N. W. 9th St.,
1101 N. W. 9th St.,
1101 N. W. 9th St.

Farmers Trust Co.

We solicit your Checking
Account

We Pay 4% on Savings Accounts

And act as Administrators Guardians, Trustees
and Receivers

Masonic Temple Bldg. 1024 Meridian St.

Phone 391

Prominent member of Roof Garden club.

- 12—Blue, warm days, rain.
Mrs. Rachael Blakely, once old resident, died, age 91.
Geo. L. Lyon, champion trap shooter, died at Abbeque gate, N. M.
Mary J. Griffin, 57, widow of former sheriff A. J. Griffin, died at Indianapolis, Ind.
Charles Brickley, 61, died at Dayton.
O. Anderson boy, son of R. M. Brickley.
E. O. Langen, Indianapolis merchant, died. Son-in-law, J. Q. Van Winkle.
- 13—Cold; light snow; S above.
Charles Lake, age 66, son of former Judge H. H. Lake, died.
John Bushman, age 50, died, 1022 W. 14th St., Anderson.
James M. Clark, civil war soldier, died at Soldier's Home, Marion.
Nephew of late Andrew Jackson Murter, Mexican soldier, former doctor, died at El Paso, Texas.
John Luthie, Justice of the Peace, son Circuit court, died that drug store is not a "blind tiger."
- 14—Light snow.
Mrs. Bertha Hite, 64, age 53, died at 1627 Pearl St., Anderson.
Lee Van Duse and family overcame by fumes of burned gas, at 1623 Ohio Ave., Greenwood.
Skating Park limited by electricity; many enjoy night skating.
- 15—Albert Winger, age 22, died at 2023 Jefferson St., Anderson.
- 16—Cold; slight snow.
Dr. Ben. Lundy Ellis, age 75, died suddenly at Markler Ho.

You should keep your money with

of course

Prominent physician. Former township trustee.

Mrs. Emaline Gahn, age 59, died at 508 Cottage Ave.

Anderson's big skate and play "ah-nah" on the ice at City Park.

Mrs. Clyde Pace of Elwood, died, 1237 I St.

17—4 below zero.

Henry J. Olvey, age 73, died at 1932 Central Ave.

Peoples State National Bank purchased by Jesse L. Verndell for Anderson Banking Company, $425,000.

The town of Wm, Okla., destroyed by fire. Great loss.

Herman Ditz, convicted of $5,000 diamond smuggling through Canada.

13—10 above zero.

Anderson County Show on held in Moose Building, N. Meridian St. Good attendance. John L. Brown, president.

Mrs. Harry Deering, of Lafayette township, died, age 29. Well known.

Mrs. Bertry Richards, died near Alexandria.

12—10 above zero.

Amos O. Holman, of near Middle-town died suddenly, age 47.

Mrs. Rebecca Legg, 72, died at the corner of Aspen and Leola. Old resident of Phareed township.

Joseph Lutels, age 70, died at Infirmary.

Joseph Wood, 78, civil war soldier, 18th Indiana Reg't, died near Huntsville, Pallareck township.

24—Sleet and rain.

Thomas J. Brown, 63, died near Alexandria. Prominent farmer. Allen Ray, of Summitville, age 70, died.

21—Very bad roads; fine Sunday. Mrs. Sarah Derby, age 74, found dead in bed at Alexandria. A native of England.

22—Fine day.

Woman Suffrage, held legal in Iowa by Supreme Court of that state.

Great flood in Oklahoma. Great loss of property.

Mrs. Bettie McCallister, age 70, fell and broke her ribs; W. 6th St.

Mrs. Louisa Kim, age 90, died at 621 S. Meridian St.

Mrs. Marion Brown severely injured in runaway near Bell's cross-lug.

23—Very warm; fine day.

Neal Robinson, age 4 years, severely scalded at 909 W. 9th St., Anderson.

24—Fine; warm.

Mrs. Barbara Chapman, age 74, died at 3543 Lincoln street. Alexandria inaugurates city beautiful improvements.

25—Warm; fine.

Gay V. Brown, 29, died at 1329 W. Fourth St.

26—Cloudy; warm.

Mrs. Geo. Hendt ran over by automobile, by Ed Cassell. Severely hurt. Accidental.

Mrs. Sarepta Soybert, 53, died near Anderson.

Joseph M. Rogers, civil war soldier of Pennsylvania, age 76, died at Soldier's Home.

Small fire at A. F. & M. works, Anderson.

Fourteen retired employees of Am. Steel & Wire Company, of Anderson, got $2,000 pensions.

27—Warm; 65 above zero. Farmers' Institute held at Lapel. Dam at Water plant, San Diego, Calif., broke; great damage; 50 lost their lives.

Joseph M. Rogers, died; mass at services at Friends church, Washington, Jan. 29. Maj. Henry G. A. R. Post taking part.

28—Cool and cloudy; rain.

Masons at Woodston celebrating 10th anniversary of founding of first lodge in the county in 1811.

Lewis D. Bennett, appointed judge U. S. Supreme Court. First brewed to that place.

Farmers' Institute at Ellettsville. Mrs. Emma Koontz, age 61, 1109 W. Monroe St., Alexandria, died.

29—Cool; cloudy; rain.

"Happy" Van Wagner, famous negro minstrel, died at Syracuse, N. Y., age 76.

The family of Len Lloyd, 1714 Meridian St., overcame by burned gas. Rescued by fire department.

Mrs. Martha J. Russell, of Ellettsville, died in Anderson, age 79. Mother of Mrs. Dr. H. V. Hunt.

A. L. Green, formerly of Ellettsville, died at Marion, Ill., age 43. Erial Tuler, age 60, died near Summitville.

30—Rain; warm.

Heavy rain all day. River high. Many people move out of homes in Park Place and along Green's branch.

Floods in southwest rd Indiana; much damage in bottom districts. 31—Turned cool; rain.

John H. Case, senior vice-commander of Indiana G. A. R., age 71, died at Marion.

Mrs. James Hickey, age 50, former resident of Anderson, died in Detroit, Mich.

FEBRUARY

Make the dollar safe: The R. L. Dollings Company sells only protected investments.

1—Cold and clear.

800 Negro convicts caught in flood at state farm, Little Rock, Ark.

2—Ground hog day. Part cloudy. He went back. Bad weather prevailed—followed by six weeks winter.

Mrs. Mary N. Cobb of Alexandria, found dead.

President and Mr. Wilson violate the Iowa "anti-tipping" law at Des Moines, by tipping waitress. No arrests.

Fire at Union Station, Indianapolis. $25,000 damage.

3—Clear; cold; 8 above.

Partial eclipse of sun; 9:30 a. m. Visible at Anderson.

4—Cold; snow.

Canadian House of Parliament blown up by bomb; many hurt. Ottawa, Can.

Mrs. Frank Helms, of Elwood, died.

George Goo, age 55, died at 130 W. 9th St. Old citizen. Buried at Lapel.

5—Moderate; cloudy.

Six hundred glass workers at Columbus strike for wages.

- A. J. Worley, formerly of Hivo, died in New York. Age 37.
- 6—Big snow; moderate.
Dr. John M. Kneass, old and prominent physician of Hadley, died. Age 75.
S. M. Jenkins, former Anderson jeweler, died at Richmond, Ind. Age 72.
Henry Mangle, old resident, died at Pendleton. Age 79.
Presbyterian church formalized.
- 7—Zero; snow on ground clear.
R. C. Glasco severely injured by fall.
Edmund Johnson, age 60, civil war soldier, former chief of Madison county, died suddenly.
Robbery of Brubaker or Gray, 512 and Madison Ave.
- 8—Fog; moderate.
Wm. H. Sinker, age 67, died at 1718 Meridian St.
Cool still here.
Henry E. Rice, col. ret., age 38, died at 728 Main St.
Light earthquake in Panama; 11 minutes duration.
- 9—Fog; moderate.
- 10—Fog; cold; a blizzard.
Ed. H. Garrison, Secretary of War and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" editor, his assistant, reached the country still living.
Jewish relief committee at Chamber of Commerce, 175, attended dinner and conference here.
John S. Swenson, age 65, died at Anderson.
Frank Nickum, age 52, died at Ellwood.
- 11—Fog; moderate.
Dr. J. L. Wellman, died at Hying

- Graduate of Harvard, died at Swanton, Mass. Age 58; graduated in 1858.
Big horse sale in Anderson, by Hancock & Kirk.
Edison's 62th birthday.
Lincoln's 101 birthday.
Jacob Stansberry, died at Alexandria. Age 59; pneumonia.
Calvin Bond, age 79, died at Ellwood, at 408 S. Anderson St.
- 12—Cloudy; snow.
John Townsend Trobridge, a telegraphist, died at Arlington, Mass. Age 88.
- 12—Clear; cold; windy.
Farm house of Micajah Smith burned in Boone township.
- 13—1 above zero; fine day.
E. P. (No. 1) Searle, age 52, long a resident of Anderson, died at his home in Indianapolis.
Jas. E. H. Atkins, re-elected president of Chamber of Commerce.
Joseph Chamber of E. 23rd St., died.
Wm. Barton of 267 W. 5th St., sent to London to represent the Navy Company.
Mrs. Alice Cunningham of Alexandria, died.
Aeroplane factory opened in North Anderson by three Frenchmen.
- 14—Fine; cold day.
First announced in Anderson of "The Birth of a Nation," three days at Grand Opera house.
- 15—Mrs. O. M. Hodson, 1901 Cental Ave., severely burned by gas explosion.
- 16—Clear; cold.
Great fire at Fall River, Mass. One million loss.

- W. W. Rheem, age 74, died at 2403 Pearl St., Anderson.
- W. O. Miller, age 75, d. o. l. C. me to Anderson in 1867.
- 17—Mrs. McDonald, age 80, died at Indianapolis. Widow former United States Senator Joseph E. McDonald.
- Mrs. John W. Kent r. d. r. r. ly of Anderson, died at North Vernon, Ind.
- Perry Noble, of Elwood, died. Ag: 65.
- 18—Heavy snow storm; cold and strong winds.
- Allen Wilson, former resident of Elwood, died at Vernon, Ind., age 78. Buried at Elwood, Feb. 29.
- Clay Sparks, an Anderson fireman, injured by a fall.
- 19—Moderate; snow.
- 20—Cloudy, afternoon.
- Art Exhibit opened at Anderson library.
- Mrs. Mary Webb, age 71, widow of the late J. R. Webb, died at Summitville.
- Mrs. Louisa Rozell, of Markleville, died suddenly of acute indigestion.
- 21—Cool; cloudy.
- Mrs. Rebecca Lindsay, age 59, died at Elwood.
- Second annual Auto Show opened at Anderson.
- 22—Mild and fair.
- Ceremonies on Washington's birthday at G. A. R. hall. Capt. F. M. Van Felt, the speaker; schools also had appropriate ceremonies.
- John H. Spencer, age 59, retired manufacturer of Alexandria, died.
- B. F. Bowman, old resident of Pendleton, died at Chicago Heights.

- Prominent Mason. Born in Germany in 1822. Lieut. in Co. B, 89 Ind. Regiment, Civil war.
- 23—Nathan Helder, age 69, old resident of Lafayette township, died. Dr. W. J. Browning of Indianapolis, suicided. Old resident and prominent.
- 24—Cloudy; moderate.
- Incendiary fire at Purdue University at Lafayette. The armory being totally destroyed.
- Jacob Harpold, age 72, died near Elwood. Was born in Anderson.
- John W. Smith, age 66, died at 2103 Meridian street. Formerly lived at Argenta, Ill.
- Grant Jones of Pendleton, prominent Red Man, died.
- 25—Cold; light snow.
- Grand Opera house at Newcastle burned, loss $12,000. One man lost his life.
- 26—Cold; wind and snow.
- Anderson Auto Show closed. A great success. Everybody pleased.
- 27—Fine; cool; sunshine.
- The old Sellers' home-stead in Richland township burned; was built over 60 years ago.
- Henry James, novelist, died in London. An English subject, of American birth.
- Henry Lee, age 74, found dead in bed at Elwood, 707 South A St.
- 28—Moderate; cloudy.
- James Warren Thomas, age 76, farmer, died at St. John's hospital.
- Iron Moulders gave annual ball at Anderson Armory.
- Henry Pratt, age 75, died near Elwood.

John Little, age 75, died near Alexandria.

23—Cool; partly cloudy.

Annual Booster Banquet at the armory, Ninth and Central avenue; splendid meeting of Anderson business men, and it was "some banquet."

Theo Herrick, age 56, died at Alexandria.

MARCH

Forkner & Rodabaugh handle R. L. Delling's protected investments.

1—Cloudy; moderate; snow 1 foot.

W. H. H. Quick died suddenly on Eleventh street, Anderson; was one of the oldest merchants in Madison county. Retired.

Frank A. Sharp, former city clerk of Anderson, died. Age 50.

Howard W. Allen, age 39, died at hospital.

Albert Abden of Summitville, had his jaw broken by slipping on a crow-bar he was using.

2—Downer Queen Elizabeth of Neumanla died.

Mrs. Lucinda Raina, age 69, died at 431 W. Fifth street; wife of Wm. Raina.

3—Cloudy; snow storm.

James A. Mahan, age 78, civil war soldier, died at 1214 Cincinnati avenue; was a Mason. Was a member of 87th Ohio, 1st Civil war.

Rev. Dr. Eugene Allen, resident as pastor of M. E. church, Anderson.

4—Cold; clear; 3 above.

J. C. Mills, age 67, died at 1242 E. Tenth street, Anderson.

Ell Connor, age 52, died, 2227

George street. Old resident of Anderson.

Merto Pearson, of Elwood, died.

5—Cold; clear.

Dedication of handsome new M. E. church edifice at Lapel, costing $30,000. Rev. P. S. Groenwalt in charge.

Henry Keester, civil war soldier and old resident of Anderson, died. Age 71.

Mrs. June Yelton, age 84, former resident of Anderson, died at Cadiz, Ind.

6—Cool; cloudy; rain.

Ora Hubbell, age 64, of the Star Foundry Company, died at St. John's hospital.

William Alt, age 29, died, 1410 W. Sixth street. Son of Fred Alt, Jr. Mrs. Jessie Mack, burned by gas explosion in cook stove.

Mrs. Nora Hill of Elwood, died at 23 A street. Wife of Alexander Hill.

Robert McMichael died, at 2224 Columbus avenue.

Alva C. Frazier, 55, died at St. John's hospital.

7—Clear; cool; moderating.

First nominating election in Indiana under state-wide primary law.

Snow storm, afternoon; turning very cold.

Elias Hatt died near Elwood. Age 55.

Mrs. Harriett Pickering died at Elwood.

Rachel Ann Jennings, age 74, died.

Mrs. Lena Duncan, age 33, died near Alexandria.

- 8—Cold; snow.
Mrs. Clara Bomberger, age 55, wife of A. P. Bomberger, died, at 512 W. Fourth street.
- 9—Moderating; fine day.
John Winegardner of Elwood, died. Age 50.
- 10—Partly clear; cold.
Mrs. Mary Miller, age 55, died suddenly at 894 Central avenue.
Dr. Edgar Lang ton, age 81, died at home of his son near Elwood.
Addison L. Perdue, age 83, died near Alexandria, Ohio, a Civil war soldier; in town Ind.
Mrs. Belle Vetter, wife of John D. Vetter, died, at 250 W. First street. Age 65.
- 11—Fine day; moderate.
Mrs. Wm. H. Vestal, mother of A. H. Vestal, died near Frankton. Age 84.
Good "sugar making."
- 12—Fine day.
Mrs. Harriett Sheward, age 74, died at 2707 Lincoln street. Was a native of Madison county.
Mrs. Julia Eagon, died at St. John's hospital.
- 13—Fine day.
Thos. J. Stephens, old resident, died. Age 73. Body slain under W. A. Nelson, from 1-9-1-1866.
Lilly Langtry, actress, injured in a fall at Chicago.
- 14—Cold; snow.
Hon. B. F. Shively, U. S. Senator from Indiana, died. Age 58.
Allen Peck, age 77, died near Elwood.
Mrs. Chas. McCord died, near Anderson.

- 15—Cold; 12 above; snow.
Larus Covels, age 7, killed by automobile driven by Samuel Lambert. Accidental.
- 16—Cold; clear.
Austin F. Bradley, age 63, died at 1812 Central avenue. Had lived in Anderson 24 years.
Joseph V. Willis, of Elwood, age 49, died.
4,000 U. S. troops invade Mexico near Juarez, in pursuit of Villa the outlaw.
Indiana Silo Company wins suit in U. S. Court, sustaining certain patents.
Mayer France Harbit and wife of Elwood, celebrate golden wedding.
- 17—Fine; cold day.
St. Patrick's day celebration by Hibernians. T. F. Cornelius in charge.
Frank Munson, age 19, step-son of Capt. Charles Williamson, died.
- 18—Phillip Clem, age 70, died near Anderson. Old resident.
- 19—Fine; clear; moderate.
John P. Miller, former superintendent Pennsylvania railroad, age 85, died; for many years lived at Richmond.
Hon. Thomas Taggart appointed U. S. Senator to succeed Senator B. F. Shively of Indiana.
Paul Janey, age 18, killed by Big Four train while crossing at Arrow avenue; riding motorcycle.
Guy Collier, age 27, prominent young man, died.
- 20—Moderate; windy.
John McCarty, age 60, died from taking nux-vomica. Old moulder. City water is declared safe, after many tests by J. C. Digger and other experts.

Hon. Stephen W. Dorsey, former U. S. Senator from Arkansas, died at Los Angeles, Cal. Age 73.

Henrietta Westfield, age 10, died at 327 E. Twelfth street.

Joseph Lemon, age 77, died near Alexandria. Lived in county 75 years.

William H. Hilbert, age 68, railroad man, died at 1600 Brown street.

Samuel Wise of Lapel, died in Illinois.

21—Great thunder storm near Marion; a train blown from track; 25 injured; rain and wind.

M. Turner of Elwood, age 38, died after surgical operation.

Cole Younger, once famous out-law, died at Lee's Summit, Mo. Age 72.

Jos. E. Hennings elected president board of governors of Dixie Highway.

Mrs. Priscilla Brown, age 81, died at 213 Berry street, Alexandria. Giles Winters' barn burned near Elwood, by lightning.

22—President Wilson puts on Master Woodrow Wilson Ho-sler, his namesake, of Elwood, Ind., a suit of clothes.

23—The mayor of Elwood puts ban on the punch board.

James R. Hanshaw, age 75, died at 1111 N. Anderson street, Elwood.

William Skinner of Elwood, age 35, died at 421 N. Ninth street, Elwood.

21—Very fine.

Mrs. Mary S. Woodrow, a cousin of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, died at Versailles, Ky. Age 98.

Remains of J. A. J. Brent, removed to his mausoleum, Maplewood cemetery.

Christian Bodenborn, 81, died suddenly at Lapel. Old citizen.

23—Rain; moderate.

Mrs. Anna M. Earey, age 58, wife of Jesse B. Earey, died at Alexandria.

Mrs. Agnes R. Lee, wife of J. C. Leo of Anderson, died at Indianapolis. Age 55.

Mrs. Mayme Janett, 46 years old, died at St. John's hospital; wife of Frank Janett.

Mrs. Sarah Hayworth, formerly of Anderson, died suddenly in Chicago.

Harvey Frye, 76 years old resident, died near Anderson.

Jesa Willard whipped Frank Moran in New York City.

26—Warm rain.

The Welfare League of Summitville decides to procure a park and playground.

John B. Klum, former law partner of ex-President Benj. Harrison, died at Indianapolis. Age 70.

James Irannon, of Elwood, died. Age 42.

27—Warm; cloudy and rain.

Mrs. Maggie Brown, wife of Frank Brown, died. She was a granddaughter of Col. N. Barry. Age 60.

Alfred Modlin, age 83, Civil war soldier in 89th Indiana, died at Soldiers' Home.

Mrs. Florence Hiday, age 34, wife of Edward Hiday, died at 1821 Madison avenue.

Farmers Trust Co.

We solicit your Checking
Account

We Pay 4% on
Savings Accounts

We act as Administrators
Guardians, Trustees
and Receivers

112 Temple Bldg. 1024 Meridian St.

Phone 391

APRIL

A dollar saved is a dollar earned.
Put your money to work. Four to 6 per cent.

- 1—Rain; cold.
Abdul W. Cook, age 82, died at Pendleton. Old resident.
Joseph A. White, age 78, died at St. John's hospital. A resident of Lapel and buried there.
- 2—Cool; cloudy.
Nicholas ("Nick") Datch, brother of the late Geo. Datch, of Anderson, died at Infirmary. Age 86.
- 3—Cloudy; moderate.
Miss Rachael Beebe, daughter of County Treasurer Beebe, died. Age 18.
Home of William Edwards, Jackson Park addition, destroyed by fire from explosion of gasoline.
- 4—Moderate; cloudy.
Rev. Hunter McDonald, died.
Mrs. Mary M. Myers, of Elwood, died. Age 82.
Daniel Bradley, of Elwood, age 77, died.
Miss Gladys Lininger, daughter of Harry Lininger, 22 W. Fourth street, injured by Big Four train at Madison avenue, while crossing track in auto.
- 5—Moderate; cloudy.
Anderson Eagles attend district meeting at Muncie by special train.
Sylvester Todd of Elwood, died suddenly. Age 68.
Miss Saglo Fenton, editoress of Leansport Times, drowned in Florida while bathing.
Brig.-Gen. Cecil A. Lyon of Texas

- National Guard, died at Storman, Texas.
- 6—Frank Stanly, age 19, died near Summitville from injuries from being hit by a rock thrown by his brother, Chauncey, age 18. Will Cunningham of the Westcott hotel at Richmond, died in Cheltenham. Age 58. Formerly of the Doxey House, Anderson. Lee Kuhns' farm house near Pendleton, destroyed by fire.
- 7—Cold; cloudy.
Mrs. Mary Edgin, age 59, died at 823 Sycamore street, at home of Mrs. J. H. Stanly.
Abraham Orbough, age 82, died at Elwood.
Mrs. Belle McCrory, age 68, died, Crystal street, North Anderson.
Bert Cleverg r, lineman for Central Union Telephone Co., severely injured by fall.
- 8—Cold; great snow storm.
- 9—Partly clear; cold.
Rev. Dr. Eugene Allen Lantz, M. E. church of Anderson for Sioux Falls, S. Dakota.
Mrs. Charla Buser, age 57, wife of John Buser, died near Alexandria.
- 10—Cold; clear.
Remains of Mrs. Robert Cummins, who died in N. Dakota, were buried at Oregon.
John Dutton, formerly of Summitville, died at Marion. Age 60. Buried at Summitville.
- 11—Cloudy; cool; windy.
Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent, died suddenly at Mt. Kisco, New York. 32 years old.
- Frank L. Kerr, formerly of Alexandria, died at Kokomo.
- 12—Warm; clear.
Albert Leslie Lund, age 36, suicided at Alexandria by taking carbolic acid.
Tomato growers of Pattercreek township, met at Pendleton. Wm. M. Swain making address.
- 13—Warm.
Counterfeit money makes its appearance in Elwood.
- 14—Cold and windy.
Baseball season opened at Summitville.
General meeting of citizens to inaugurate plans for Indiana Centennial celebration at Anderson.
Mrs. Mary E. Skeen, age 82, died at 2123 Forkner street, Anderson.
Mrs. Carrie F. Howard, age 55, died at 2295 Jefferson street, Anderson.
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Howard, of Alexandria, celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary.
C. E. Warrendar's cigar factory destroyed by fire in Park Place.
- 15—Mild and fair.
Donald Powell, age 32, instantly killed by collapse of brick wall at Elwood. Arthur Bradley, 19, a's injured.
David S. Wood, soldier in 83rd Indiana Regiment, Civil war, died at 1225 D street, Elwood. Age 59.
John Wesley Polnd of Frankton, Civil war soldier, d.-d. Buried in Maplewood cemetery April 17.
- 16—Fine day; windy.
Dead body of Villa reported "captured" in Mexico by Col. Carranza's command. Report not confirmed.

Joseph Benna, age 89, died at In-terbury; late of Alexandria.

17—Cool; Windy.

Martin Hilton died suddenly at Summitville; Civil war soldier; member of Major May G. A. R.
Post.

William Thompson severely injured at Levee laundry.

Fire at Safe and Lock Company, on Arrow avenue. Small damage.
The safe went through fire all right.

18—Rain; cool.

Walter Meigan, age 55, died at Gibson, Morgan county.

Adolph Koster, age 67, died at:
2415 Fletcher street.

19—Fair and cool.

Alexander Under, age 59, died at 1024 Park street.

20—Moderate; rain.

Mrs. Mary Resnoski, 52 years old, died at Twenty-ninth and Pitt streets, Anderson.

Nathan J. Leisure, died near Elwood, age 75. An old and wealthy resident.

21—Cold; rain.

22—Clean-up day at Elwood.

23—Fine latter day; cool.

Mrs. William Ebban died in Anderson.

Anderson Knight Trudgers celebrate Father at Trinity Episcopal church. Rev. Begelew in charge.

24—Cool; cloudy.

Mrs. S. B. Tuttle died at 2221 Church street.

25—Cool; rain.

Fred B. Furnell, 31, died at West
Baden, Ind. Was editor of Elwood paper. Son of E. E. Fornsell, former postmaster at Elwood.

Joseph Staub, age 66, died at 2226
Fletcher street.

26—Rain; cool; snow.

Democratic State convention. Thos.
Taggart nominated for U. S. Senator.

Mrs. Cleora Reeves of Anderson, died, age 46. Prominent woman.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warren, of Linwood, died, Age 53.

Mrs. Jacob Smelser, age 90, died at Frankton. Mother of former sheriff, Sol Smelser.

27—Cool; cloudy; showers.

Lenroy Cox, former superintendent Anderson city car line, died at Rushville. Age 54.

Mrs. Mary Kelly, of Alexandria, died. Age 87. Mother of Ed Sherman, the first mayor of Alexandria.

Mrs. Lizzie Ray, formerly of Anderson, died at New Albany.

28—Moderate; sunshine.

Mrs. Walter Vestal, near Ande-son, died suddenly. Prominent lady.

Small fire at Anderson Club room from lights match thrown on fl. or.

Mrs. Geo. Torrence, age 55, died at 2008 Locust street.

Senator Taggart sells Denison hotel, Indianapolis, to Crawford Fairbanks of Terre Haute.

Mrs. Sarah Paugh of Elwood, died.
Age 61.

29—Death of Bruno Schindz in Berlin, Germany. He was architect and designer of Soldiers' Monument at Indianapolis.

Geo. K. McClintock, of Stonycreek township, age 62, died.

30—Fine day.

Jos. W. Sobol, former attorney of Indiana, who died in Wash. D. C., D. C. nephew of former U. S. Senator John F. McDonald. Anderson Odd Fellows attend services at M. E. church in a body. R. Homer Beck, age 55, of Indiana Dairy Company, died. Orla E. Zorn, age 46, died, southwest of Anderson.

MAY

Taxes are due. Get non-taxables. Four to 5 per cent.

- 1—Cool; part clear; afternoon rain. Frankton holds their Centennial celebration. John Hicks, Civil war and Mexican soldier, died at the Miers' Home. Old resident of Madison county. Mrs. Rebecca Markholder died at 735 W. Second street, Anderson. Clyde West, of Elwood, died. Age 31.
- 2—Cold; cloudy; rain. Madison Tupper, age 69, died at Elwood. Tinplate worker. Mrs. Nancy A. Appard of Lap Elwood; a resident there for 18 years.
- 3—Cold; cloudy. John L. Brown predicted a "wet moon"; cold damp weather up to 25th; cool June; a hot July, and fine November. Promiscuous for of Roof Garden club.
- 4—Moderate; sunshine. Mrs. Genevieve Carey, age 56, died at 1915 Pearl street, Anderson. Mrs. Lucia Scott, age 71, widow of the late James P. Scott, died at Alexandria. James S. Higdon, age 81, died at Alexandria.

5—Warm.

Commencement exercises at Lapel high school. Very interesting ceremonies.

C. Wesley Studly, died at Chitopa, Kans., age 81. Formerly of Lapel. Soldier in 34th Ind. Reg. Civil war.

6—Warm.

Great rain and thunder storm at night.

Samuel Leven, age 62, died at Anderson.

Barn on John R. Page farm near Pendleton, destroyed by lightning. First wireless telephone experiment from Navy Department with warships at Washington. A success. First in the world.

W. W. Hancock's barn near Moonville, destroyed by lightning; $2,000 loss.

William P. Long, 67, died near Alexandria. Old and highly respected resident.

7—Warm; fine 85 in shade.

8—Pleasant

Henry W. Graham died near Lap I. Age 60.

10—Cloudy; stormy; wind.

Fred J. Macomber died. Age 46.

11—Elwood decided vet by Judge Wills. Bills by a 4 majority vote.

D. C. Hoppes, agent of Pennsylvania Railroad Co. of Anderson, died. Age 37.

Col. V. V. Williams, of Bedford elected department commander of G. A. R. at Evansville.

- Isalah Eodkins of Lafayette township committed suicide with carbolic acid. Age 65.
- Mrs. Joseph Laurent, age 64, died at Elwood at 700 Main street.
- Train of U. S. soldiers pass through Alexandria to Mexican border on L. E. & W.
- 12—Kriegling Bros. Circus in Anderson. Great show. City schools dismissed to witness parade. Cold, wet day, big crowd.
- Mrs. C. L. Matthews, of North Anderson, age 55 died.
- Miss Emma McNabry, of Summitville died at Kokomo.
- 13—Cool.
- 14—55 in the shade.
- 15—Cool; Rain.
- 16—Cold and windy.
- Mrs. Elizabeth Golden died in Anderson.
- 17—Very windy and cold.
- Jamea Biddle age 21 killed, in accident of National Tile works, Anderson.
- Mrs. Elizabeth Line of Elwood, found dead in her home alone at 1621 North C St.
- William Van Buskirk, age 65, died at Elwood.
- Mrs. Perry Coombs, age 35 died in Anderson, at Chase and 10th streets.
- Henry Danbaugh Frenchman, died at Infirmary, former traveling salesman and lived at Elwood. Age 70.
- 18—Cold
- Mrs. Mary B. Kelly, age 81, died at 330 W. 10th St. Formerly Mrs. Sullivan, born in Ireland 1835.
- Homer Roberts, age 38, died at 417 East 8th St. Park Place.
- 19—Cold and dreary.
- Fred Barber attacked on public highway by a big bull while driving a Paige auto. Barber and machine escaped; bull got the worst of it.
- 20—Cold; Some rain.
- 21—Cold; Rain.
- Anderson Red Men hold Memorial service at cemetery.
- 22—Cold; Rain.
- 23—Warm.
- Abraham Hale, 81, nephew of Gen. U. S. Grant, died at Marion, Indiana.
- Mrs. Myrtle Rush, of Pendleton, died suddenly.
- Union Traction Company of Indiana awarded first prize for safety and sanitary devices at New York convention May 23 to 24.
- 24—Very warm.
- Mrs. Rachel Todd, age 44, died suddenly at Lincoln School building. Howard Schultz found dead, at Alexandria.
- 25—Very warm.
- Centennial celebration in Madison county, opened at Pendleton closing at Anderson 26 and 27. R. R. Redabaugh, purchased first button to raise funds. Grand success. William Lumly former city councilman of Anderson died suddenly.
- J. J. Cavanagh of Anderson died at St. Mary's Hospital.
- G. W. Hoßner, seriously hurt by falling from auto in street parade.
- 26—Hot; 95.
- Herbert S. Babcock died at Detroit from injuries received in auto accident, formerly of Anderson.

Great exhibition of relics opened at 13 and Meridian Streets, part of Centennial celebration. Grand success.

27—Centennial celebration ended by old-fashioned quadrille dances at curio exhibit at 13 and Meridian Streets.

28—Cool.

Mrs. Samuel Brown, 53, of Walnut street, died.

Annual Memorial services by Alexandria Glass Workers.

Federation of colored clubs met in Anderson.

Joseph Pence, age 65, died in North Anderson.

28—Civil war soldiers attend services at Christian church.

29—Cool; Rain forenoon.

James J. Hill great railway builder of the North west died at St. Paul, Minn.

Geo. W. Hoffer, 75, died from injuries received in falling from a truck in Centennial parade. Lived at 403 W. 4th street, Anderson.

50—Cool; Cloudy; Some rain.

Memorial Day celebrated by strewing flowers on Soldiers graves.

Col. Jno. S. Mosby, 51, famous Rebel outlaw during the Civil war died at Washington, D. C.

Robert Shannon, age 58, died at 475 Maple Street, North Anderson.

31—James L. Moran, age 66, died at St. John's Hospital.

Union Traction Station removed from 11th street to Moose block, North Meridian Street.

—30—

Mrs. Mary Brown, age 84, widow of Frank Brown died.
Mrs. John Gray, age 82, died at 2116 Columbus Avenue.

JUNE

Get the Dolling's idea of Investments. Forkner & Rodabaugh.

1—Mrs. Etta Miller, died, was sister of Mrs. Dr. H. E. Jones. Born in Cambridge City, daughter of Capt. J. M. Cokefair, of Ind. Battery Civil war.

John Ring, age 64, died Alexandria at 316 S. Miles St.

Mrs. Geo. Ball, age 84, died at Rigdon, Ind.

2—Pain of Frank Manifold, struck by lightning and burned near Pendleton.

Riley Minfia's barn near Pendleton, burned by lightning.

Samuel Todd, age 73, a Civil war soldier in 59 Ind. Regt. Civil War, died.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tappen, 80 years old, died in Boone Township.

Hon. W. T. Zenon, former congressman, died at New Albany, Ind.

3—Mrs. Rosa Anna Gwinup, age 60, died at 2206 Fletcher Street, Anderson.

4—Anderson Knights of Pythias observe Memorial Day.

William E. Skinner, 80, Civil War Veteran, died at 2119 Brown Street.

Was a runaway.

Mrs. Mahala Denny, 78, died at 2620 Monroe St.

Rain and wind storms 4, 5, 6, of June many killed; high water; severe hail storm at Elwood; Very cold; Overcoats low.

—31—

- 5—Cool; Some rain.
Mrs. Michael Gilmore, age 50, died at St. John's hospital; lived in Adams township.
Mrs. Eva Benbow, age 29, wife of Charles S. Benbow, died at 2114 Main street.
S. L. Van Petten had his arm broken at the wrist by a fall.
- 6—Heavy rain; Cold.
James W. Streets, age 84, Civil War soldier killed by Central Indiana train near Cedar street, Anderson.
Harold S. Willson, son of Dr. S. Canby Willson, age 21, found dead in bed at 1021 Lincoln street. Acute indigestion.
Esther Mary Roberts of Elwood, age 55, died. Prominent woman.
- 7—Cold; Overcoats in demand.
Mrs. Filera Latshaw, 63, died near Summitville.
- 8—Cold.
Mrs. Anna Margaret Davis, age 71, died near Pendleton.
- 9—Cold; Overcoats.
Jno. R. McClern, died in Washington D. C. former editor of Cincinnati Enquirer. Age 68.
James B. Windle, age 58, died near Markleville.
- 10—Cold; Cloudy.
Hughes and Fairbanks nominated at Chicago for President and Vice-President on Republican ticket.
James M. Hollingsworth, retired grocer, died suddenly. Age 65.
Masonic Temple at Middletown struck by lightning.

Roosevelt and Parker nominated on "Bull Moose" ticket at Chicago for President and Vice-President.

- 11—Mrs. Harry Brown, colored, died at 1504 Sherman Street.
Asa A. Perry, age 65, died at Alexandria.
- 12—Mrs. Mary E. Kelly, age 89, mother of Mrs. H. J. Stein, died at 421 W. 13th street, Anderson.
Mrs. T. N. Stilwell, re-appointed member of School Board of Anderson.
- 13—Warm; Pleasant.
John F. Keavis, 52 years old, died near Orestes. Was a prominent farmer.
Mrs. William Mulvaney, of Alexandria died, Age 54.
- 14—Fine day.
Anderson Elks observe "Flag Day" by appropriate ceremonies.
Democratic National convention opened at St. Louis, Mo.
John French, age 70, died at 303 W. 5th street, Anderson.
Gilbert H. Scott, age 73, died near Daleville.
Andrew Stanley, age 65, old resident died.
Wilson and Marshall re-nominated President and Vice-President at St. Louis by acclamation.
- 15—Wm. F. Kastling, postmaster at Buffalo, N. Y. died suddenly at St. Louis convention.
- 16—Cool; Rain.
U. S. Senator Burleigh, of Maine, died at his home in Augusta.
Claude Hatton, age 38, killed by traction car near Dundee, Ind.

- Mrs. Lucinda L. Hulse, age 71, died at Alexandria.
- Frank S. McLaughlin of Lapel, died in M. E. Hospital at Indianapolis from effects of a fall from scaffold. 25 years old.
- 17—Cold.
- Mrs. Hanora Welch widow of John Welch died, age 83. Came to Anderson 1857. Born in County Kerry, Ireland.
- 18—Cold; Some rain.
- Mrs. Sarah Ann Brown widow of Neddy Brown died at Elwood. Age 76.
- John Barker died at Sunnyside. Burial at Salem Indiana.
- 19—Cold.
- Matthew Swinford, died suddenly in Anderson Age 40.
- Mrs. Mary I. Irwin of Alexandria, age 62, died at 707 S. Clinton St. Malitia Company's from all parts of States ready for call in Mexico.
- Mrs. Ella McCormick of Elwood died, age 76, at Lafayette Soldiers Home.
- 20—Cold.
- Joseph Haugler of Elwood, died suddenly. Age 51.
- Mrs. Angeline Manning near Alexandria, died age 66, wife of Ambrose Manning.
- 21—Cold.
- W. A. Coddington of Linwood died Age 65.
- Mrs. Ruth Jackson, died widow of Daniel Jackson south-east of Anderson 6 miles. Age 74.
- 22—Cold; Some rain.
- Mrs. Lillian Pickett, age 55, died at 504 West 3rd street, Anderson.
- 23—Warm; 85 in shade.
- Universallists hold state meeting in Anderson.
- Policeman James D. Hagerty of Indianapolis killed by negro.
- Anderson Municipal band gave concert at Pendleton.
- 24—John Memorial services at Pendleton by fraternal organizations.
- John A. Dobbins, age 77, died at 1729 W. 8th street, Anderson. Lived in Anderson thirty years.
- 26—Rain in evening; Warm.
- Valentine Smith, age 84, died at 192 N. D. Street Elwood.
- Oscar Sparks and son were badly burned by gas explosion at Elwood.
- Benj. Fulp, age 89, died at 1706 Louise Street, Anderson. Born in England.
- Mrs. Bessie Spence committed suicide at 2805 Chase St., Anderson.
- Geo. J. Reger near Pendleton suicided by shooting himself. Age 22.
- Catharine Brown, age 75, died at infirmity.
- 27—Cloudy, Pleasant.
- Mrs. Mildred Jones, age 78, died at 807 W. 13th street, Anderson. Buried at Eaton Indiana.
- James Turner, age 26, died at Gospel Trumpet Home.
- 28—Gentry Dog and Pony show in Anderson. Showed near Cincinnati avenue.
- Young Jack Austin (7) presented with a fine pony by Gentry Bros. The boy's father formerly was with the Gentry show and now with Barnum and Hatley.

29—Warm; 90.

Immense trains of troops and artillery pass through Anderson enroute to Mexican border.

Mexican General Carranza releases American prisoners.

Albert Roscoe Graham, age 25, died of lock jaw at St. John's hospital. Gov. Samuel Ralston addressed the soldiers at Camp Halston and Fort Benj. Harrison.

30—Very warm; 90.

Three persons in Marion county and one in Rush county, killed by lightning.

Stephen John, 65, died suddenly near Chesterfield was soldier in Civil war.

JULY

Put your summer hog crop in non-taxables.

1—Warm enough; 85.

Geo. Prutt killed in street car accident at Detroit. Burial at Anderson, July 5.

Mrs Juliet Childs of Alexandria died. Age 69.

Geo. E. Bonshire first member of Volunteer company Mexican service.

Matilda Collis, age 84, died near Elwood. Buried at Forestville.

Three train loads of Maine National Guards pass through Alexandria on L. E. & W. railroad for Mexican border.

Mrs. Alta Jones Tuerffs badly injured at Col. Water O. in auto. Daughter of Harrison Jones. Died July 6.

—36—

2—Hot; Rain afternoon; 85.

Great hail storm at Fort Harrison, visitors driven from Camp Ralston.

3—Warm.

Mrs. Hettie Green, richest woman in the world died in New York. Age 89.

John Harrison, age 75, died near Anderson on the farm, where he was born.

4—Warm.

Celebrations at Anderson, Elwood and Frankton. The Stars and Stripes much in evidence.

9th annual fire works display by Neel M. McCullough at W. Tenth street, Anderson.

No. 4 fire station gave fine display of burned powder.

A. D. Seward of Elwood, died at Soldiers Home at Lafayette.

5—Huber Bros. circus at Summitville.

6—Robert Bruce Van Dyke, age 69, died, former janitor at Court House Anderson.

Solomon Coburn, age 71, life resident of Anderson township died. Batteries of I. N. G. leave Ft. Harrison for Mexican border.

7—Mrs. Zilla Darlington, age 72, died at Pradenton, Old resident.

3rd Regiment Indiana National Guard left Fort Harrison for Mexican border.

8—Birthday of John D. Rockefeller, age 71, richest man in the world. Not such a bad man either.

10—Warm.

John Craig Bliz Four railroad man died at Rushville from injuries.

—37—

Lived at 1820 Noble street, Anderson.

11—Hot.

12—Warm.

Mrs. Mary Shipley of Alexandria died. Age 88.

Big shoot at Peru. 12th and 13th. Peru gun club.

13—Hot.

Destructive storm in Kosciusko county. Considerable damage to property.

14—Very warm.

15—Warm.

Brunbaugh family killed by Big Four train in auto near Millford, Ind.

16—103 in shade at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Dr. F. L. Stone of Pendleton died.

Geo. Hudson, age 16 accidentally killed by gunshot by William Malone near Anderson.

18—Very hot; Light rain

Great floods at Atlanta Ga. Many lives lost.

Mrs. S. G. Bevelhimer, age 72 died in Lafayette township. Her husband died March 31.

19—Warm.

Body of Miss Hazel Manville arrived from Albuquerque, New Mexico. Daughter of Mr and Mrs. C. E. Manville, of Anderson.

House of A. B. Oldham struck by lightning at Pendleton.

Farm house of Spencer Lawson, southwest of Anderson struck by lightning.

Many local storms.

20—Very warm.

Republican campaign opened in

—28—

Make Us Prove It

FADELY'S FAMOUS OOTWEAR

Fits Feet Fine

We want and will appreciate your trade

Madison county at Elwood by big banquet.

James Sweeney of Ames Shovel plant, died, 815 Prospect street. Age 45.

Residence of Jesso Dille struck by lightning near Pendleton

Residence of James Donnelly near Chesterfield struck by lightning.

Barn on Jefferson Jackson farm near Alexandria destroyed by lightning.

21—Warmer.

Relief Ice plant burned at Indianapolis; loss $75,000.

Daniel Metrick, age 82, died at 537 Meridian street, North Anderson.

Mrs. Florence Murphy, age 76, died at Elwood. Wife of Milton Murphy, deputy oil inspector.

22—Moderating.

James Whitecomb Riley, the Hoosier poet and famous writer, died at Indianapolis. Native of Greenfield; once lived in Anderson.

24—Hottest day of the year 94 in shade 106 on streets.

25—94 in shade.

Time to sow turnip seed; wet or dry.

26—97 in the shade.

Mrs. A. C. Rice of Anderson, died. Age 74, 612 W. 12th street.

Mrs. William Carroll of Lafayette township, died.

10th street bank at Indianapolis robbed at high noon. Robbers escaped

27—106 in shade; hottest day in many years; Farmers abandon fields.

—32—

Mrs. Cora Groover of Elwood, died. Age 40.

28—100 in shade; 106 in open street; 59 deaths in Chicago from heat. Contract for Y. M. C. A. let to P. H. Lorenz, of Moline, Ill.

Farm home of Chas. Davis, east of Anderson destroyed by fire

Wilfred Jackson, age 68, died north east of Anderson.

Elmer Bergman, age 24, machinist, died on Lynn street, Anderson.

Joseph Lashure, 65, died. Infirmary.

29—Fred C. Gedge, formerly of Anderson, died in suburb of Chicago, age 60; was one of original promoters of American Steel & Wire Co. Once a member of Anderson city council.

30—Good and warm.

Wm. S. Berson, Anderson attorney, died at Indianapolis.

Great explosion of war munitions at New York; $70,000,000 loss. Great damage to property.

Samuel A. Taylor, age 68, died, near Pendleton.

31—90 in the shade.

Ice found in Pendleton.

End of hottest July in many years.

AUGUST

Have your money working while you sleep.

1—Leonard Smith had leg taken off by fall from under Big Four train while stealing a ride.

J. E. Lippincott, glass manufacturer of Alexandria, died, at sanitarium at Cambridge Springs, Pa.

—40—

2—Warm.

Mrs. Carolina Johnson, run over by auto near Alexandria, supposed to be fatally injured, died Aug. 3.

"Deutschland" German submarine leaves American shore for home. Great fires raging in Canada; many lives lost and property destroyed also in lower part of Michigan.

Mrs. Mary Maggans, age 81, died, in North Anderson; wife of Joseph Maggans.

3—Warm; rain.

Fire at Pittsburg Plate Glass works Elwood; small loss.

Mrs. Susan C. Ricks, 260 E. 1st, died, at 726 West 2nd street, Anderson.

Jack Fitzgerald, old Dr. Four employe died, at Indianapolis; formerly of Anderson, age 62. Buried at Anderson.

4—Warm.

Frank Skoul, dies from injuries in fall from bicycle at 1929 Sheridan street, Anderson.

W. J. LaPoiteux, 46, merchant, of Cumminsville, died after surgical operation.

Heavy rain storm at Elwood; killing many birds in the trees.

5—Awful hot.

Horse burned to death in Alexandria in barn.

Elxced woman ties her husband to bed post to sober him up.

Louis Gregory, age 24, instantly killed on Pendleton and Elm pks. by motorcycle collision.

6—Hot.

7—Moderate.

8—Warm.

Mrs. Minnie McMannehan, of Elwood, died in hospital at Indianapolis. Age 50.

—41—

Many die in New York from heat.

Virgil T. Morgan, age 68, Civil war veteran, died at 2015 Meridian street, Anderson.

Mrs. George Bevelhelmer, age 72, widow, died at 130 E. 13th street, Anderson.

John L. Wallace, died, lived at 124 W. 17th street, Anderson.

9—Explosion of gasoline in cook stove at Wm. Estep's home, 1907 Pearl street, Anderson; small damage.

10—Hot.

11—Very warm.

Mrs. Emma Shinkle, age 56, died. One of the oldest residents of Madison county.

Mrs. Anna Davis, age 72, died at Elwood at 1924 S. K. street; a native of Wales.

12—Moderating.

Country club grounds sold to E. C. Toner for $16,000. Was once known as camp Stilwell where 24th Ind. regiment, Civil war was organized.

Miss Mabel Brown, badly injured in runaway at 1122 West 7th street, Anderson.

13—Very warm.

Old Fiddlers' contest at Mounds Park; large crowd.

14—Moderate.

15—Bernard Hentent, age 62, died, Alexandria.

R. O. Miller, died, Alexandria, Age 60.

16—Mrs. William Pavey, age 72, died, found dead in bed at 214 E. 13th Street, Anderson.

—42—

A. J. Maynard age 61, died near Alexandria.

John Valentine, age 79, died, near Pendleton. Old resident of county.

Mrs. Amy Brandon, 81 years old, widow of Dr. J. Brandon, of Anderson; was born at Huntsville, Madison county, in 1833.

17—Hot.

Mrs. Veretina Kownacke, died, at Alexandria.

Col. Edward H. Wolf, former auditor of state, died at Rush Springs, age 81; commander of Indiana regiment in Civil War. Prominent Mason.

18—Rain, Very warm.

Franklin Hermann had a $750.00 fire. Mrs. Sarah Hensald, died at 2915 N. D. street, Elwood.

19—Very warm.

M. J. Hermann died, at Elwood. Age 40.

Wind and rain storm near Middletown; stopping rail traffic.

Mrs. W. S. Stark, died at 43 Jackson street, Anderson.

Dr. Cain of Middletown, died, at St. John's hospital of heart disease.

20—Hot.

21—Rain and storm.

Dr. C. M. Steuts of Middle town, instantly killed near Pendleton in automobile wreck, was on his way to funeral of Dr. Cain an intimate friend.

22—94 in temperature.

Great rain storm; barn of Jonathan Curtis near Linwood, burned by lightning.

Hector Lee's barn destroyed.

Fred Seybert had horse killed by lightning.

E. B. Pierce's house struck by lightning at 329 N. Meridian St. Anderson.

Anderson population 31,233.

John S. Hixs, age 61, died, near Alexandria.

Miss Pearl Murphy, formerly of Anderson, known as Pearl Perkins, murdered in Chicago. Daughter of Judge Perkins.

Mrs. Francis Prather, died, at Elfont. Buried at Huntsville.

23—Very pleasant.

Mrs. Stephen Tucker, 68, died in Anderson. Old resident.

24—Chiff Blitchman, of Alexandria, died of sunstroke at Green Bay, Wis.

Mrs. J. W. Poland of Frankton, died. Age 67.

Mrs. Louisa Lorraine of Antlers, died, 2421 Delaware street. Age 43.

William Riley Seybert, 94, died south of Anderson. Whole life spent in Madison county.

25—Big tents arrive from Indianapolis for Free Fair, Anderson.

26—Heavy rain storm in evening.

Thurman Cox, age 20, killed by kick of runaway horse near Anderson; rail mill employee.

Big storm passes over Chesterfield, Tom Marshall hurt by falling tree.

27—Fine pleasant day.

Mrs. Mabel B. Pollock, died, 216 Monroe street, Alexandria. Age 25.

Raymond Stephens, killed in auto collision, with I. C. T. car at Elwood.

28—Cool.

Stephen Metcalf, former editor of Anderson Herald and ex-postmaster, died; soldier of 75th Indiana Civil war. Age 75.

Mrs. Margaret Ferguson died, near Orestes, age 72; widow of Wm. J. Ferguson. Old resident of Madison county.

29—Pleasant

Val Otto badly hurt in auto wreck and his companion R. G. Watson, instantly killed at Indianapolis.

30—Cool

Big Free Fair opened at Anderson. Fine crowd.

31—Very warm.

Estimated attendance of Anderson at Big Free Fair from 4:30 to 5:00, 10,000

SEPTEMBER

1—Light rain.

Unknown man killed on Midland railroad near Anderson. Mrs. Sophia McHugh, died at 229 1/2 S. H. Street, Elwood. Age 75.

2—Fine.

Hon. Addison C. Harris, died, at Indianapolis. Age 75. Former minister to Austria and once State Senator. A fine lawyer.

—Samuel Jackson, age 81, died, at Pendleton.

Great railroad strike called off. Big Free Fair closed at Anderson by fire works display. A great success.

Ex-Clerk of Madison county. R. H. Hannah celebrating his 82nd birthday at Alexandria.

—45—

3—Cool; clear.

Mrs. John Beard, age 58, died, 821 Meridian Street, North Anderson. Joseph Frazier, age 36, employe of Stiffen Mfg. Co., died, 828 W. 4th St., Anderson.

6—North Main street reopened after being closed for one year.

Dale Gibbs, of Anderson, shot himself. Not fatal.

7—Eli M. Wisehart, died, near Hagers-town, age 70. Old school mate. Mrs. Sarah Thomas, age 40, died, at Alexandria.

9—Pleasant.

A. G. Barnes circus and animal show in Anderson; Second appearance here. Chas. M. Cook and his Innman attaches of circus, were married at Court House, Anderson.

10—Warm.

Old Settlers in annual reunion at Mounds Park; Great success; 5000 in attendance. Band concert and speaking. Hon. F. P. Foster orator of the day.

Mrs. H. O. Barnes, died, 322 W. 8th St. A very estimable woman.

11—Moderate.

Mrs. A. C. Stephenson, age 42, died from operation at St. John's hospital.

Maine "wont h—l bent" for Republican ticket, like it did in the days of Senator Kent.

Hon. Thomas L. James, of New York, Postmaster general under president Garfield, died. Age 86.

12—Warm and clear.

David Messmore, of Orestes, died. Age 66. Old resident of the locality.

—46—

Big Four freight train held up and robbed between Anderson and Rushville.

12—Moderate.

Gen. J. T. Wilder, commander of World's "Lichtning" Brigade Civil war was guest of W. H. H. H. Ho-fiel, at Pendleton. 85 years of age.

14—Pleasant; clear.

Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall notified of his re-nomination at Tomlinson Hall Indianapolis. Large crowd present. He took the "stump" as soon as he found it out.

15—Cool; clear; frost.
Fairbank's Vice-Presidential candidate taken ill at Atchison Kansas; soon recovered.

16—Cool; clear; frost.

Dr. McGarrey, Professor Vawter Park Hotel, Wawasee Lake, died. Well known by Anderson people.
Gen. Bazil Duke of the centennial army Civil war, died in New York.
Jno. H. Myerly, age 80, died suddenly near Elwood. Prominent in local politics.

Lawrence Shiel, age 23, died suddenly in St. Joseph's church, Elwood.

17—Cool; pleasant

Alfred Dunham, age 60, son of former Mayor Wesley Dunham, of Anderson, died at Indianapolis.
Mrs. Ora Earlywine of Elwood, died.

Hon. Seth Low, former Mayor of New York, died.

Major General A. L. Mills, died suddenly in Washington D. C.

John L. Sells, age 50, died. Prominent undertaker of Sells Bros.

18—Cool; clear.

19—Cool; clear.

20—Worth's Museum at Springport Indiana destroyed by fire. It contained a very fine collection of curios from all parts of the world. No insurance.

21—The Harmony Baptist Association met in annual session at Elwood.

Mrs. Mary Shaul, 55, died at Pendleton.

Mrs. Mary Likens, age 50, died near Elwood.

22—Hon. Chas. Hughes, candidate on Republican ticket for President spoke in Anderson.

23—Hon. Chas. E. Hughes ended Indiana trip as candidate at Indianapolis. Planted a tree on grounds of C. W. Fairbanks, candidate for Vice-President, Sept. 24th.

President Woodrow Wilson in speech successfully answered all criticisms heaped upon him.

Rev. D. P. Cunningham and wife drowned at Los Angeles, Calif., while bathing; formerly of U. B. church, Anderson.

Fred Mowry, formerly of Anderson, drowned at Baltimore Md., age 59. Buried at Anderson Sept. 23th.

24—Disastrous fire at Phoenix New York; one million dollar loss. 81 buildings destroyed.

Geo. Curry, age 58, died, born at Nashbury, England.

26—Warm; windy.

Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, widow, died, 16 E. 6th street, Anderson.

Jas. Beeson suicided at Anderson.

age 55. Buried at Summitville.
Charles Abel, age 60, died at Alexandria.

Chris. Shultz, age 53, died, Alexandria. Buried at Summitville.

27--Cloudy; warm.

Great day; wind storm stripping fruit orchards of pears and apples. Damage to property, rain in evening.

The residence part of Cadiz in Henry county nearly wiped out by fire. Anderson and Newcomb departments respond to call.

William Leath, a badly hurt near Chesterfield by falling from a bridge upon which he was at work. Omner Stanley, former resident of Madison county, died at Greenwood, Ind. Age 67.

28--Slight snow; first of season, according to Bulletin.

Mrs. Ralph Jones, 26, colored, died, 1905 Hendricks street.

Miss Nellie Clevinger, severely injured by auto; recovered.

William Herron, 71, Civil war soldier, died at Soldiers Home Marion, formerly lived at Alexandria.

29--Ralph Campbell, 17, badly injured in auto collision; adopted son of W. R. Campbell.

Farmers of Madison county form a corporation for their interests and welfare. Vinton Busby, president, W. R. Dyer, secretary.

Mrs. Lybb Armistead, Matron of Madison county post house died suddenly.

Chas. E. Frey, proprietor Doxey Hotel during early 80's died at Easton, Pa.

-43-

William Perkins, age 59, died, 1913 Fletcher St. Prominent Mason.
30--Cool.

Mrs. Margaret Harpst, age 55, died, 812 Delaware street, North Anderson.

OCTOBER

1--Pleasant; Sunshine.

United States Senator J. P. Clark, of Arkansas, died at Little Rock.

Mrs. Josephine Sharp, widow of Isaac Sharp, died, age 59, Anderson.

Theodore Rose, age 64, died, 1731 Pear, street, Anderson.

Noah Etchison, age 35, killed by I. E. & W. train at Alexandria.

2--Andrew J. Knotts, 36, died, 2215 St. Charles street.

Mrs. Eliza Farrow, 55, died, 1709 Jefferson street, Anderson.

Mrs. Massey Williamson, age 81, died in Fall Creek Township, widow of Stephen Williamson, suddenly.

3--Third Street bridge Cleveland collapsed killing and injuring many people.

4--Warm

Mrs. Margaret Dixon, widow of W. H. Dixon, died at 721 Cottage Avenue Age 77.

Barn belonging to Robert Pittsford and others burned; fire of unknown origin; loss $2,000 Insured.

5--Clear.

Frank Vogt, Anderson grower, died. Age 66.

Great County Day at the Indiana

-50-

Centennial Indianapolis. Gates boat took first prize. Mrs. Kate DeWitt, of Anderson, died at Windfall.

Several persons at Elwood poisoned by eating pawpaws. James Gwinn Civil War soldier, died near Anderson. Members of 35th Ind. Regiment Mounted Infantry.

6—Warm; 80.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benefield, of Pendleton, celebrate Golden wedding.

Hayes Wheel works of Anderson, organize fire department.

7—Very warm; 82.

Chas. F. Lotman, 44, prominent Anderson business man, died.

Mrs. Mark Patterson, age 68, old resident died near Anderson. J. L. Reid, father of Golf in America, died at Yonkers, N. Y. Age 76.

8—Warm; 85.

Frank B. Williams, former manager of Schofield Holt works, died at Lebanon, Ky. Age 75, buried at Anderson.

Guy Harmon, age 24, killed on Ten Handle railroad near Anderson.

9—Cold; rain.

Joseph H. Millhaugh, age 48, prominent citizen of Anderson, died suddenly.

Registration day in Indiana.

Geo. Beall, father of Mrs. W. L. Starrett, of Anderson, died at Marion.

Andrew J. Hart died at 1295 W. Second street, Anderson.

—51—

10—Pleasant day.

Alexander Taylor, age 69, old Anderson resident died, lived in Anderson since 1857.

Joseph Watkins, colored, old Anderson barber died at Indianapolis. He was the first colored man to sit on a jury in Madison County. Robert Williamson appointed sales manager of K. L. Dollings Co. Was post master at Muncie under Taft.

11—Warm; fine.

John L. Peetz, former State Statistician, died at St. John's Hospital. Age 45.

Mrs. Alvina Beckner, age 64, died at Lapel.

12—Cool; fine day.

President Wilson and wife attended the Centennial celebration at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Henry Hedrick, former resident of Anderson, died at Indianapolis, age 80.

13—Rain forenoon; cool.

Sidney G. Clay, of Paris, Ky., relative of Gen. Henry Clay of political fame shot and killed.

14—Pleasant

John C. Alpha Jones burned near Summitville. Clay Hedson died near Middletown suddenly.

15—Cool; bright rain.

Chas. Lower, age 30, died, 400 Meridian street, Anderson.

16—Moderate; light rain.

Gen. J. Frank Hanly candidate for President on prohibition ticket spoke in Anderson.

Mrs. Edward Jones, of Pendleton.

—52—

severely injured in automobile accident.

17—Fair and cool.

Jesse Mellet, age 65, died, former newspaper man, father of Mayor Mellet of Anderson.

18—Cool; rain.

The Indiana Real Estate Association met at Anderson guests of Anderson Board of real estate association, banquet at Staffords.

Mrs. Margdalene Hollstein, of Indianapolis, died, widow of Maj. Cons. L. Hollstein, prominent lawyer.

19—Cool; light rain.

Mrs. Dr. H. E. Jones, 138 W. 10th street, Anderson, died, was the daughter of the late Capt. J. M. Coker of the Indiana Battery Civil war. Born at Cambridge City, Ind. and lived in Anderson since 1873.

Joseph Herman Taylor, of Alexandria, died, age 25.

Card Indiana visited by second disastrous fire within three weeks.

Mrs. Laura Smith died at 1605 W. 8th St., Anderson.

20—Cold; windy and snow storm.

Mrs. Harriet Lewis, age 75 with John Lewis, old resident of Anderson, died.

Mrs. Fred Lown, of Anderson, died at 245 Locust street, age 29. Mrs. Nettie Wesley, of Ellettsville, died.

21—Cold, moderating.

Mrs. Jane Taylor, wife of Lerley Taylor, died at Pendleton.

Anderson Haymakers have grand annual street parade.

J. Wood Wilson of Marion, died. Prominent in Dixey Highway movement.

John Ulrich, former resident of Anderson, died at Indianapolis. Age 65.

Mrs. Maud Gale, age 36, suicided near Pendleton by shooting herself.

22—Cool; clear.

Leo W. Lawrence, clerk at Big Four freight office, died at 1515 Pearl Street, Anderson.

Jesse Wallace, 86, died, 270 Indiana Avenue, Anderson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shipley, formerly of Van Buren township, died at Robinson, Ill., at the age of 79.

Mrs. Mary E. McAshan, 36, died at St. John's hospital.

23—Moderate.

24—Fair; moderate.

25—Cool; rain.

Six persons killed at South Bend by collision of auto and traction car.

26—Moderate; sunshine.

John Lowes, Civil war soldier, age 78, died in Anderson. Old resident, his wife died Oct. 29.

Isaac D. Bosworth, soldier in Civil war age 81, died in Brooklyn New York, resided in Anderson.

Herman Johnson, age 51, a glass worker, found dead in his room at Alexandria.

Alexander Drake, colored, age 46, died at St. John's hospital.

27—Fine; sunshine.

Lee Hart shot his wife and suikided at W. 9th street, Anderson.
Ed LaRue former Anderson policeman, died at Indianapolis. Buried at Anderson.

28—Moderate; sunshine.

Ford donated $100,000 to Wilson campaign fund.

Indiana Masonic Home at Franklita dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

29—Fine; warm day.

W. H. Havens, former Anderson man, died at Middletown.

William Rauler, age 79, old resident of Adams township, died suddenly.

30—Fog; Dornenbauer, prominent young man, died near Middletown, age 27.

Hobart Smith, and his wife stantly killed by Big Four train at Madison Avenue.

Mrs. John Lampshus, colored, died, Park Place.

Lewis F. Fadely, age 65, old resident of Anderson, died near Middletown.

31—Cloudy; moderate.

Big Halloween celebration, Anderson, large crowd and much merriment.

Caleb Garrett, age 61, died 6 miles southwest of Anderson.

Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Herbert Enicht, died at Spoutville.

Stephen N. Wyrth, age 40, gas fitter, died at 613 Cottage Avenue, Park Place, Anderson.

Big fire at "Wall-Over" shoe store on South Meridian street.; loss $5,000.

NOVEMBER

1—Fine day.

Michael O'Conner oldest wholesale grocer of Indianapolis, died, age 78.

Edward Cheneworth, brakeman on L. E. & W. railroad killed at Alexandria, age 25. His home is in Muncie.

2—Warm; fine; sunshine.

Magnolia Block Indianapolis destroyed by fire; large loss.

3—Moderate.

Frank Woodward and family of Lapel in auto wreck on Rocky Avenue, Anderson; none seriously injured.

4—Warm; sunshine.

Sarah Garrett, age 49, widow of Caleb Garrett died in Stomy Creek township, her husband died Oct. 31.

John Clancy, age 72, Civil war soldier, died at Soldiers home Marion. He formerly lived in Anderson.

5—Warm.

Corner Stone of V. M. C. A. building at Anderson laid by the various churches uniting in the ceremonies.

Fernandes Wilson, near Alexandria, severely injured by infuriated bull.

Bronze tablet stolen from monument to Moravian Missionaries erected by D. A. R. near Anderson; recovered in a Muncie junk shop.

Gib Moreland brought remains of his wife and son, from Dayton, Alberta (Canada) for burial at Anderson.

6 - Fine sunny day.

7 - Fine and warm.

Presidential election day resulting in closest contest since Grover Cleveland was elected in 1884.

Wilson President and Marshall Vice-President re-elected.

8 - Cool and rain.

9 - Cold and rain.

Miss Blanche E. Hall, died at 193 W. 5th street, Anderson.

10 - Clear; cool.

James J. Myr, former Supt. Knife and Bar works, died at St. John's hospital, age 59, Anderson.

11 - Cool; clear; fine.

Dr. W. O. Canaday, died near Frankton, prominent farmer and once a physician at Frankton. Dennis Doolittle, age 60, former shoe salesman of Anderson, died suddenly at Muncie.

Aviator Custerly made first successful flight of aircraft built in North Anderson reaching 2000 feet high.

Wheat sold in Toledo at $2.69 per bushel.

12 - Very fine day, warm.

Edward Stevens, died at 2215 Pearl St. Age 65.

13 - Cold; rain; snow.

26 below zero in North West, coldest known for years at this season.

Mrs. Grace Kieberger, age 31, died at 3304 Lynn Street.

Mrs. C. D. Wright, age 63, died 221 E. 11th street, Anderson.

-57-

A. M. Riley, died, 1503 Walnut street of blood poisoning from small scratch on his arm. Age 57.

14 - Cold; snow.

Margaret Stilwell, age 18, daughter of Thos. N. Stilwell, W. 10th street, died in Chicago while attending school.

15 - Cold; part clear; 18 above zero. Edward Lennington, age 62, killed in gravel pit on Ridge road near Anderson.

Emanuel Shepherdson, age 49, former Anderson carpenter, died at Colville, Wash.

16 - Clear and cold.

Mrs. Martha R. Craggile, age 50, died near Elwood.

Frederic Gore accidentally shot himself while hunting near Elwood resulting in serious injury to his foot.

17 - Thomas E. Smith, age 72, died west of Anderson, son of the late Seth Smith an early Anderson lawyer.

Everett Morrey, of Anderson, died from inhaling fumes of burned gas 1727 Jackson street.

H. C. Polinger, age 75, died, 915 Jackson street; old resident of Madison county.

18 - Fine; warm.

George Walters, age 81, died, 1501 North Canal street, Alexandria.

19 - Fine; sunshine.

Whitely Malleable Iron Works at Muncie destroyed by fire.

Mrs. Marlon Deering, widow of the late George R. Deering, died, 523

Meridian street, age 89. Lived in

-58-

- Anderson since 1868. Body cremated.
- Mrs. Mary Allison, 69, mother of Policeman Allison, died, 1630 Nichol Avenue, Anderson.
- 20—Fine day.
- Benj. P. Clendenin, died at Chesterfield, age 72.
- Great excitement among the ladies by appearance of "Jack the Grabber."
- Mrs. Margie Spillman, age 62, died at 2426 Morton Street.
- 21—Fino day.
- Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria died at the age of 80 known as the Emperor of sorrow.
- Milit by 300 Croat men in Anderson blown by Frank Katory from North Anderson to Indianapolis in 21 minutes.
- Jens Wehler, native of Denmark, died, 308 Cottage Avenue, Anderson. Age 54.
- Mrs. Carrie Taylor, age 78, died, 2126 George Street, wife of Arch Taylor.
- 22—Mild.
- T. A. Crawford, age 74, died 16 W. 13th street.
- Rachel Hancock, age 25, died 221 Forkner street.
- Hon. Chas. E. Hughes congratulated President Wilson on his reelection.
- Jack London, American novelist, died at Santa Rosa, Calif.
- 23—Cold; rain and snow.
- William Reiser, Civil war soldier in Ohio regt. died in Anderson, age 71. Lived here 50 years.

24—Very cold.

- Mrs. Margaret Bagley, 75 years old died on Nichol Avenue. Old resident of Anderson township.
- Joseph P. Delplane, age 67, died, Anderson, grocer.
- Christiana Farran, died, 827 W. 4th St., Anderson. Age 74.
- Leona Wood, age 18, died 426 S. Meridian St.
- Benj. F. Mikesell, age 82, former resident of Anderson, died at Seymour. Many years agent on C. W. & M.

25—Cold.

- Dr. W. A. Lail, bailiff in Superior court died, age 62, resided at 1222 Hendricks street.
- William L. Rupert, of Elwood, died age 60.
- Andrew J. Davis, age 86, died at Elwood.

26—Sunshine; moderate.

- 28—Reuben Neese, old resident of Perkinsville, died. Age 70.
- Mrs. Minnie Dantield, age 54, died at Alexandria.

29—Ira A. Barnes, severely injured in auto wreck.

- Dr. Austin and associates of Anderson become the owners of Gentry Shows, Anderson to be headquarters.

30—Fine sunshine. Thanksgiving day turkeys so high, but few were eaten.

- Elmer Kimberling, Anderson drugist died. Age 31.
- Mrs. Mary Brown, widow of former postmaster Brown of Anderson, died at St. Cloud, Fla. Buried at North Manchester.

DECEMBER

Turn a new leaf. Start your money at work for the new year. Doubling securities will do the rest.

1—Mrs. Mary Case, age 76, died 1216 Pearl street, Anderson.

Fire at storage house of J. B. Moore and Sons constructionists; E. 16th street.

Mrs. King F. Smith, severely injured in auto wreck, 3609 Lincoln street. Mrs. Hetta Taylor today hurt.

Mrs. Anna Patton, former resident of Anderson, died at Lansing, Michigan, Age 74.

2—Fire day.

J. C. Briggs, age 18 and Ora Conroy 14, instantly killed in collision wagon at Fortville by Big Four train.

Mrs. Emily Tibbels, wife of Samuel Tibbels, died 1713 Sherman street, Anderson, Age 74.

Joseph Elliott, formerly of Anderson, killed in the lake at Campbelltown, Ohio.

Mrs. Mary Workman died in Lafayette township, Age 61.

3—Fire day, warm.

Anderson High school memorial services at 12:30 at S. Main street. M. E. Foley delivered the address.

4—Overcast, rain, warm.

Thomas J. McShen, former sheriff, and Robert Carter, died in Anderson, Age 71.

Great thunder storm in evening. Mrs. Alice Hinch, widow of H. J. Rouch, 3rd 414 W. 2nd street, Anderson.

5—Rain in evening.

Mrs. Alice Armstrong, president of Standard Oil Co. died at Tarrytown, New York. Number Sherman, age 71, died southwest of Anderson.

6—Moderate, rain.

W. C. Richter resigned as controller, Anderson.

Mrs. Lucy Green, died 1216 Sherman street, Anderson, Age 41. George C. Bolt, proprietor of Washford, Astoria, Ore., New York, died, was a great success as a hotel manager.

7—Warm, rain.

Funeral for the evening.

Mrs. Nancy Emma, wife of Peter Eiken, age 74, died at Chicago.

Theo. E. Decker, son of John Eriksen, died near Oregon.

8—Rain, cold, snow.

Third regiment Indiana Infantry National Guard, returned from Mexican border to Fort Harrison.

9—Cold, cloudy, wind.

Dunn's Steamship Co. of Boone company, and 30, died at St. John's hospital, Chicago.

10—Fog, moderate.

16th anniversary of the burning of Madison county court house, Dec. 10th, 1880.

11—Cold, snow.

Elizabeth Williams, widow, age 48, died at home, 11 E. 11th street. Geo. Charles J. J. Griffith, died Meridian street, Age 41.

Mrs. Flenora Hill, age 81, died 514 N. Pitt street.

William M. French, age 81, old resident of Madison county, died.

Meeting of Odd Fellows at Anderson; 600 present.

Robert Trout, old citizen of Middletown, died. Age 87.

12—Cold; snow.

Isaac Terwilliger, of Elwood, died, age 51.

13—Cold; real winter.

Al G. Fields ministrals in Anderson. Fine show.

James E. Burke, prominent business man of Anderson, died. Age 54.

Harry H. Gardiner, the "Human Fly" climbed to top of Union block with bare hands.

Twenty killed in mine explosion, Pittsburg, Pa.

Mrs. T. J. Kane, 50, formerly Miss Nellie Welch, of Anderson, died at Stockton, Cal. Buried at Anderson.

14—Down to zero

Coldest day of winter up to date. Edwin M. Lee, chairman of Indiana Progressive committee, appointed on utilities commission by Gov. Ralston.

Mrs. Louise K. Skouden, wife of David Skouden, died. Age 68, Park Place.

Augustus F. Teague, old resident of Pendleton died. Age 79.

15—2 below zero

Harry Timberlake, age 31, died, 1204 W. 16th street.

No flies on the court house; too cold for Harry Gardiner to attempt the climb.

Winter set in for good, and weather prophets "take to the woods."

16—Cold; snow.

Mrs. Lucinda Rains, wife of Jeff Rains, died near Pendleton.

17—Cold; clear; 20 above.

Thomas Feland, Civil war soldier, 101 Indiana regiment, died, 214 W. 4th St., Anderson.

Mrs. Leulso Northcut, age 72, died at Elwood.

James A. Smith, age 45, died, Alexandria.

18—Cold; 10 above.

19—Snow storm; cold.

Mrs. Sarah Litchfield, age 83, died at 617 W. Third St., Anderson.

Mrs. Mary Greenback, age 62, died at Elwood.

Everybody "cussin"; weak steam pressure and no gas.

The Mid-West Box Company hold annual banquet at Staffords.

20—Snow; fine sleighing.

G. W. Decker, age 68, died near Elwood.

Mrs. Laura F. Wilson fell and broke her hip, near Van Petten block.

21—Cold; fine; snow.

The young ladies of the Remy plant hold banquet at Staffords.

The shortest day in the year.

$200,000 fire, New Castle, Pa.

Hon. A. W. Brady elected member of Anderson school board.

Elwood lodges and churches join in making a happy Christmas.

James Hull of Boone township, died. Age 60. Old resident.

22—Cold and clear.

Sleighbing fine; many "cutters" on the streets.

Mrs. Teresa Grohowski, Polish lady, age 20, died at St. John's hospital. Congress takes a holiday recess. Chas. Stephens caught for robbing U. S. mails. Mid-West Box Company gave big dinner at Platars, for officers and employees.

- 23—Cold; clear. Sleighing; snow still on. Old-fashioned winter. Anderson merchants proclaim this the banner year for Christmas shopping. Parolling of James Walker, who shot two policemen, came near causing mob, at Alexandria. He was hurried back to prison.
- 24—Snow; moderating. Pendleton celebrated holiday festival with municipal Christmas tree. Ransom Call, 65, grocer clerk, died. Was resident of county all of his life.
- 25—Fine, sunny; snow-white Christmas. Schuster Bros. banquet the Anderson newsboys, at Stafford's. A happy time for the "newsies." John L. Forkner, former mayor, fell on ice and broke his arm. Second accident of the kind in three years. Two hundred families given Christmas baskets by churches, individuals and Associated Charities. Quiet, but happy Christmas in Anderson.
- 26—Sl-et on pavements. Germany proposes a conference of belligerent nations of European war to settle differences

County commissioners make annual shake of "plum" tree. Records of Postmaster J. L. Pralley show that receipts of office during holidays were $4,057; largest in history for period. W. J. Black elected Democratic city chairman. Twelve killed in tornado in Arkansas.

- 27—Moderate and thawing.
- 28—Moderate and thawing. Alfred E. Bagley, 54, veteran tile worker, died. Contracts for $151,000 worth of improved roads let by county commissioners. The Elwood Fair Association which had been in existence since 1863, disbanded because of poor business.
- 29—Cold and clearing. County lost damage suit filed by late Wm. Dohnd, former county treasurer, which had been pending fifteen years. Aaron Taylor, Munde, colored man, wanted for theft of $230, caught by Anderson police. Anderson population, 23,396, according to government estimate.
- 30—Fair and cold. The Allies reject offer of Central powers for peace terms. Mrs. J. C. Shafer, 24, wife of real estate man, died. City light plant closed for twenty minutes as the result of an ice jam in White river. W. C. Richter retires as city controller of Anderson, and is succeeded by Charles E. Smith.

1758123

31—Fair and cool.
Jesse Davis, 87, bachelor and farmer, died.
Seventy-five links attend Presbyterian church in a body.
1916 was given farewell send-off by factory whistles, church bells and explosives.

CORNELIUS AND SHAFER

Real Estate

Farms and Farm Loans
a Specialty

515 Union Bldg. Phone 401

5748

